I. RESOLUTIONS

A. All proposed resolutions must be submitted to the National Action Center by July 9, 2021 at 5:00pm eastern.

B. Resolutions not submitted by the deadline will not be considered at the conference. The submission must state if you wish the resolution to go to an issue hearing for consideration or whether it will be posted on the conference website for signatures. All resolutions must be in proper format.

II. Issue Hearings

A. Background

1. Since NOW’s earliest days we have conducted issue hearings at our annual conferences. An issue hearing is a forum in which formal resolutions are offered for discussion, possible modification, and approval or rejection. An issue hearing is similar to a legislative committee which considers proposed bills and resolutions and amends, adopts or rejects these.

B. Resolution defined

1. The purpose of resolutions is to set public policy positions for the organization which help guide the leadership and activists on a wide range of matters that affect women’s lives. A resolution is a one-page statement describing a matter of concern, listing various facts and reasons in short sentences prefaced by the word “Whereas” as to why this concern should be addressed, followed by the word “and; the last Whereas statement ending with a period. A concluding series of statements contain proposed solutions or actions that address the concern. Each is stated separately, with the first statement prefaced by the words, “Therefore Be It Resolved,” followed by the proposed solution or action. A second statement should be prefaced by the words, “Be It Further Resolved,” and so forth for additional statements and closing with a last statement prefaced by the words, “Be It Finally Resolved,”

C. How it is used
1. Over the organization’s history hundreds of resolutions have been adopted and collected in the Policy Manual and are listed under topic categories with the year of adoption noted. The Issues Policy Manual can be found on the Members Only page of the NOW website.

D. Subjects of the hearings are generally organized around NOW’s six core issues: Reproductive Rights and Justice, Racial Justice, Ending Violence Against Women, LGBTQIA+ Rights, and Constitutional Equality. Additionally, we will have an issue hearing on global feminism and young feminist issues.

E. Who can submit a resolution: Anyone may offer a resolution – so long as it meets the stated format and length. Instructions for writing and formatting a resolution appear on the NOW website’s conference pages. Non-members may offer resolutions.

   (1) How to submit a resolution

F. Anyone may offer a Resolution – so long as it meets the stated format and length. Instructions for writing and formatting a resolution appears in the Conference program booklet and appears on the NOW website’s conference pages. Persons who wish to offer a resolution would be well advised to check NOW’s Policy Manual first, look up the subject category and read through the resolutions just to make sure that they are not addressing an issue that has been addressed previously. If there are new conditions that have arisen which the proposer believes should be addressed regarding that particular issue they may proceed. Resolutions which set out recommended actions are to focus these on the work of the Chapter activists; actions which have a substantial impact on the financial resources of the National Action Center are discouraged.

G. Advance submission required
1. Because of the special nature of our virtual conference in 2021, we are requiring advance submission of proposed resolutions. This is to smooth out the issue hearing discussion and amendment process. When submitting a resolution, you must submit it in a Word document in the proper format (as shown on the NOW website’s conference pages). You will need to choose whether to bring the resolution to an issue hearing or have it posted on the NOW website that requires 50 signatures of registered NOW members to have it considered by the Resolutions Committee. Resolutions that are submitted for signature will be posted on the conference website linked to an airtable form for signature.

H. All resolutions must be submitted here in a word format by July 9, 2021, at 5:00 eastern time. Questions may be directed to the Chair of the Resolutions Committee at resolutions@now.org.

III. Issue Hearings process

A. Hearings may consider multiple resolutions, providing they can be heard within the time allotted. There is a limit of two resolutions from each of the hearings that can be submitted to the resolutions committee; each approved and final version shall be identified by the Proposer’s name and email address/cell phone number at the bottom, plus the name of a co-chair for that issue hearing and their contact information. Once Resolutions are approved, they are forwarded to the Resolutions Committee for review and preparation for discussion and ultimate consideration by the Body. The “Body” is the gathering of all conference attendees who meet on the final day of the conference to review, discuss, amend and vote to adopt or reject resolutions from the floor.

B. Proposers may pursue an alternate route to submit a resolution through an issue hearing by submitting a resolution through the signature process. The Resolutions Committee may be reached at resolutions@now.org.

C. Hearings will be comprised of the following: two co-chairs, a timekeeper and NOW participants. Members who wish to have a Resolution considered shall bring the resolution to only one Hearing. The co-chairs will begin each Hearing by reviewing the format of the Hearing. Internet access to the Policy Manual shall be available for chairs’ and members’ use to review policy on the issues on the members page on the NOW website.
D. The current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall be the parliamentary authority.

E. At the beginning of the Hearing, the co-chairs shall advise the participants of the number of Resolutions being presented. The co-chairs will divide the allotted time by the number of Resolutions to be considered (this does not mandate equal time per resolution), including time for discussion and time for voting on final wording and prioritizing. In order to consider all ideas, strict time division will be maintained. Time may also be allotted per speaker.

F. The voting procedures shall be:

1. All NOW members, including everyone who registers at the Conference and is made a NOW member, shall be eligible to vote in the issue hearings.

2. After discussion of all resolutions presented to the hearing, the co-chairs shall conduct a vote on each resolution. Conference attendees may vote for or against as many resolutions as they choose.

3. If two or fewer resolutions receive a majority vote, those resolutions shall be forwarded to the Resolution Committee for plenary consideration.

4. If more than two resolutions receive a majority vote, the co-chairs shall conduct a second round of voting on those resolutions which received a majority vote. During this second round of voting, members may vote for only two or fewer resolutions.

5. The two resolutions which receive the highest affirmative votes in the second round of voting shall be forwarded to the Resolutions Committee for plenary consideration.

6. Such resolutions must have been adopted in accordance with the voting procedures described in Section V.D of these rules.

7. Conference attendees may not be denied admittance to a hearing at any time except temporarily when a vote is in progress on an individual motion, amendment, or resolution.
G. Process for Submission of Resolutions to the Committee

1. The National Board shall submit any resolutions adopted by the National Board which require approval from the body at the national conference.

2. Resolutions may be submitted by the co-chairs of the issue hearings and/or a designee as signed by the co-chairs.

3. Resolutions may be submitted if signed by 50 NOW members registered at the Conference.

WHEREAS, Congress first passed a ratification deadline of 1979 for the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) and later extended that deadline to 1982; and

WHEREAS, 37 states of the required 38 states have already ratified the ERA; and WHEREAS, the current 115th Congress has before it, Senate Joint Resolution 5 (SJ Res 5) and House Joint Resolution 53 (HJ Res 53) to repeal the arbitrary ratification deadlines for the ERA; and
